Exercise Questions

1. Write an SQL query to count the number of students in each grade and only display grades that have more than 3 students.

2. Write an SQL query to fetch all student names along with their marks, ensuring that all students are included in the output even if they don't have any marks.